What is Cellular Telephone Protection?

Subject to the terms and conditions provided in this Guide to Benefit, Cellular Telephone Protection will reimburse the enrolled eligible accountholder (the "Accountholder", also referred to as "You" or "Your") for damage to or theft of eligible Cellular Wireless Telephones. Eligible Cellular Wireless Telephones are the primary line and up to three (3) secondary, additional, or supplemental lines as listed on Your cellular provider's monthly billing statement for the billing cycle preceding the month in which the theft or damage occurred. Cellular Telephone Protection is subject to a fifty-dollar ($50.00) deductible per claim and a maximum of two (2) claim occurrences per Eligible Account through which this benefit is provided per twelve (12) month period. Who is eligible for this protection?

To be eligible for Cellular Telephone Protection, You must be an accountholder of an eligible U.S.-based financial institution enrolled in the Cellular Telephone Protection benefit and pay Your monthly Cellular Wireless Telephone bills with Your eligible account issued by your institution ("Eligible Account"). Following the benefit effective date set forth above, Your Cellular Telephone Protection begins the first day of the calendar month following the payment of the Cellular Wireless Telephone bill using Your Eligible Account. If the Accountholder fails to make a Cellular Wireless Telephone bill payment for a particular month, the Cellular Telephone Protection is suspended. Provided the Cellular Telephone Protection continues to be offered, the benefit will resume on the first day of the calendar month following the date of any future Cellular Wireless Telephone bill payment with the Eligible Account.

What type of protection is this?
